Philippe Taillardat Joins Vantage Infrastructure's Equity Investment Committee

Vantage Infrastructure is pleased to welcome Philippe Taillardat as its second independent Equity Investment Committee member.

Philippe is currently Managing Partner at Oaksley Conseil, providing Investment advisory services to institutional investors and asset managers primarily in the energy and infrastructure sectors. Prior to this, Philippe was one of three Partners leading the European infrastructure equity team of First State Investments with ~ €4bn AUM with responsibility in particular over portfolio construction, fund raising and investor relationship, as well as managing a team of 20+ investment professionals. He was also member of FSI global Infrastructure senior management team and infrastructure investment committees. Prior to First State Investments, Philippe ran the indirect infrastructure equity investment activities at Amundi Private Equity Funds after several years spent in project finance and structured & asset finance at CACIB, AXA and BNP.

Commenting on his appointment, Valeria Rosati, Senior Partner and Chair of the Equity Investment Committee, said: "Philippe has a considerable breadth and depth of experience in European infrastructure investing through decades of practice at the most senior levels. We are delighted that he has accepted to join our Equity Investment Committee as independent member, adding further perspectives and broader expertise to our investment decision-making process".

Vantage Infrastructure's Equity Investment Committee is now composed of five members, including two independent members.
